

Fever Dream Love Song

Lights go off again
Flicker though the dark
Circus music playing soft
Starless in the park

The acrobat winds down
Sudden movements cease
Spinning wildly into each other's
Arms to be released

I don't want to end
I don't want to start
The middle is the longest one,
It's the hardest one to part

These fragments seem obtuse
Maybe love songs aren't my thing
But I don't think I can ignore
The colours that you bring

Purple diamonds, winter bells
Fever dreams, heaven swells
What the hell I'm talking about
I will never tell
I will never tell