

For a Different Girl This Time

You're a
Miracle diver
You
Wait for the Rest of us
Beautiful
In your Unwilling
Desire

I
Can't explain you
And
You get bogged
Down by your Sleeplessness
Drugs downed with
Orange tinged rain juice

And
There goes the new
One
That I thought
You loved but
You like the Same people
That I can't relate to

And
As I misspoke
You
Didn't correct me so
You must have Thought I would Think I was joking

Chorus:
So goodbye
To the ones I can't talk to
The girls
And the people with eyes that keep moving

Speak

To the changes
But
Live the same Parties, your Anxiousness
Plummets from
My mountain ranges

And
Though I still Hide
Behind walls
Of self reference
I'm scared of
The places my Thoughts can't reside

So goodbye
The girls
And the people with eyes that keep moving

This
May
Be the last
Song
I like, that I've written,
I've said that
before but that was the past

So goodbye
To the ones I can't talk to
The girls
And the people with eyes that keep moving
